 - (d) Periodic disclosure requirements (Part K); and
 - (e) Disclosure requirements for specific listed issuers (Part L).
- (3) Continuing disclosure is the timely and accurate disclosure of all material information by a listed issuer to the public.
- (4) Continuing disclosure ensures a credible and responsible market in which participants conduct themselves with the highest standards of due diligence and investors have access to timely and accurate information to facilitate the evaluation of securities.

PART B - CORPORATE DISCLOSURE POLICY

9.02 Corporate Disclosure Policy

- (1) A listed issuer must, in accordance with these Requirements, disclose to the public all material information necessary for informed investing and take reasonable steps to ensure that all who invest in its securities enjoy equal access to such information.
- (2) A listed issuer must adhere to the following 6 specific policies concerning disclosure, which are as follows:-
 - (a) Immediate disclosure of material information (Part C);
 - (b) Thorough public dissemination (Part D);
 - (c) Clarification, confirmation or denial of rumours or reports (Part E);
 - (d) Response to unusual market activity (Part F);
 - (e) Unwarranted promotional disclosure activity (Part G); and
 - (f) Insider trading (Part H).

PART C - IMMEDIATE DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL INFORMATION

9.03 Disclosure of material information

- (1) A listed issuer must make immediate public disclosure of any material information, except as set out in paragraph 9.05 below.
- (2) Information is considered material, if it is reasonably expected to have a material effect on:-
 - (a) the price, value or market activity of any of the listed issuer's securities; or
 - (b) the decision of a holder of securities of the listed issuer or an investor in determining his choice of action.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subparagraph (2) above, material information may include information which:-
 - (a) concerns the listed issuer's property, business, financial condition or prospects;
 - (b) relates to dealings with employees, suppliers, customers and others;
 - (c) relates to any event affecting the present or potential dilution of the rights or interests of the listed issuer's securities; or
 - (d) relates to any event materially affecting the size of the public holding of its securities.

9.04 Examples of events which require immediate disclosure

The following are some examples of events which may require immediate disclosure by the listed issuer:-

- (a) the entry into a joint venture agreement or merger;
- (b) the acquisition or loss of a contract, franchise or distributorship rights;
- (c) the introduction of a new product or discovery;
- (d) a change in management;
- (e) the borrowing of funds;
- (f) the commencement of or the involvement in litigation and any material development arising therefrom;
- (g) the commencement of arbitration proceedings or proceedings involving alternative dispute resolution methods;
- (h) the purchase or sale of an asset;
- (i) a change in capital investment plans;
- (j) the occurrence of a labour dispute or disputes with sub-contractors or suppliers;

- (k) the making of a tender offer for another company's securities;
- (l) the occurrence of an event of default on interest and/or principal payments in respect of loans;
- (m) a change in general business direction;
- (n) a change of intellectual property rights;
- (o) the entry into a memorandum of understanding; or
- (p) the entry into any call or put option or financial futures contract.

9.05 Withholding of material information

- (1) A listed issuer may, in exceptional circumstances, temporarily refrain from publicly disclosing material information, provided that complete confidentiality is maintained. Where material information is withheld, the listed issuer must refrain from delaying disclosure for an unreasonable period of time since it is unlikely that confidentiality can be maintained beyond a short period of time.
- (2) The exceptional circumstances where disclosures can be withheld are limited and constitute an infrequent exception to the normal requirement of immediate public disclosure. In cases of doubt, the presumption must always be in favour of disclosure.
- (3) The following are some exceptional circumstances where disclosure may be temporarily withheld:-
 - (a) when immediate disclosure would prejudice the ability of the listed issuer to pursue its corporate objectives. Public disclosure of a plan to acquire certain real estate for example, could result in an increase in the listed issuer's cost of the desired acquisition or could prevent the listed issuer from carrying out the plan at all. In such circumstances, if the unfavourable result to the listed issuer outweighs the undesirable consequences of non-disclosure, disclosure may properly be deferred to a more appropriate time;
 - (b) when the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent. Occasionally, corporate developments give rise to information which, although material, is subject to rapid change. If the situation is about to stabilise or resolve itself in the near future, it may be proper to withhold public announcement until a firm announcement may be made, since successive public announcements concerning the same subject but based on changing facts may confuse or mislead the public rather than enlighten it. In the course of a successful negotiation for the acquisition of another company, for example, the only information known to each party at the outset may be the willingness of the other to hold discussions. Shortly thereafter, it may become apparent to the parties that it is likely an agreement can be reached. Finally, an agreement in principle may be reached on specific terms. In such circumstances a listed issuer need not issue a public announcement at each stage of the negotiations, describing the current state of constantly changing facts but may await agreement in principle on specific terms. If, on the other hand, progress in the negotiations should stabilise at some other point, disclosure should then be made if the information is material; or

- (c) where company or securities laws may restrict the extent of permissible disclosure before or during a public offering of securities or a solicitation of proxies.

9.06 Maintaining confidentiality

Whenever material information is being temporarily withheld, a listed issuer must ensure that the strictest confidentiality is maintained.

9.07 Monitoring of market activity and making of announcements

During a period where information is withheld, the market activity of the listed issuer's securities must be closely monitored. The listed issuer must make an immediate announcement to the Exchange of the information withheld, in the following circumstances:-

- (a) unusual market activity in the listed issuer's securities which signifies that a "leak" of the information may have occurred;
- (b) rumours or reports concerning the information have appeared; or
- (c) where the listed issuer learns that there are signs that insider trading may be taking place.

PART D - THOROUGH PUBLIC DISSEMINATION

9.08 Thorough public dissemination

- (1) A listed issuer must release material information to the public in a manner designed to obtain its fullest possible public dissemination.
- (2) A listed issuer must ensure that no disclosure of material information is made on an individual or selective basis to analysts, shareholders, journalists or other persons unless such information has previously been fully disclosed and disseminated to the public. In the event that material information is inadvertently disclosed on the occasion of any meetings with analysts, shareholders, journalists or others, it must be publicly disseminated as promptly as possible.
- (3) Disclosures of material information can often be made after the market closes. If the disclosure is made immediately before or during trading hours, the Exchange will consider whether a temporary suspension in trading of the listed issuer's securities is necessary. Such a temporary suspension provides an opportunity for the dissemination and evaluation of the information released.
- (4) Any public disclosure of material information must be made by an announcement first to the Exchange or simultaneously to the Exchange, the press and newswire services.

PART E - CLARIFICATION, CONFIRMATION OR DENIAL OF RUMOURS OR REPORTS

9.09 Clarification, confirmation or denial of rumours or reports

- (1) Whenever a listed issuer becomes aware of any rumour or report, true or false, that contains material information, the listed issuer must make due enquiry and immediately publicly clarify, confirm or deny the rumour or report.

- (2) For the purpose of subparagraph (1), the listed issuer must publicly clarify any rumour or report which is in any form whatsoever and howsoever including that by word-of-mouth and not limited to an article or otherwise, published in a newspaper, newswire, magazine, a broker's market report or any other publication.

9.10 Response to rumour or report

- (1) In the case of a rumour or report containing erroneous material information which has been circulated, the listed issuer must immediately make an announcement to the Exchange denying or clarifying the rumour or report and setting forth facts sufficient to support the denial or to clarify any misleading aspects of the rumour or report. A reasonable effort must be made to bring the announcement to the attention of the particular group that initially distributed it. In the case of an erroneous newspaper article, for example, this should be done by sending a copy of the announcement to the newspaper's financial editor, or in the case of an erroneous broker's market report, by sending a copy to the broker responsible for the report.
- (2) In the case of a rumour or report containing material information that is correct, an announcement setting forth the facts must be prepared for public release, which shall include but not be limited to, an indication of the state of negotiations or of corporate plans in the rumoured area. Such announcements are essential even if the matter has yet to be presented to the listed issuer's board of directors for consideration.
- (3) In the case of a rumour or report predicting future sales, earnings or other quantitative data, no response from the listed issuer is ordinarily required. However, if such a report is manifestly based on or contains erroneous information, or is wrongly attributed to the listed issuer, the listed issuer must respond promptly to the supposedly factual elements of the rumour or report as required under paragraphs 9.09 and 9.10. In addition, the listed issuer must include in the announcement a statement to the effect that the listed issuer itself has made no such prediction and currently knows of no facts that would justify making such a prediction.

PART F - RESPONSE TO UNUSUAL MARKET ACTIVITY

9.11 Unusual market activity

- (1) Where unusual price movement, trading activity, or both (referred to as "unusual market activity" in this Chapter) occurs, the listed issuer must immediately undertake a due enquiry to seek the cause of the unusual market activity in its securities. The listed issuer must consider in particular whether there is any information concerning the listed issuer which would account for the unusual market activity that:-
 - (a) has recently been publicly disclosed;
 - (b) has not been publicly disclosed (in which case the unusual market activity may signify that a "leak" has occurred); or
 - (c) is the subject matter of a rumour or report.
- (2) If the listed issuer determines that the unusual market activity results from material information that has already been publicly disclosed pursuant to these Requirements, generally no further announcement is required, although, if the unusual market activity indicates that such information may have been misinterpreted, the listed issuer must issue a clarifying announcement to the Exchange.

- (3) If the unusual market activity results from a “leak” of previously undisclosed information, the information in question must be publicly disclosed by the listed issuer in accordance with these Requirements.
- (4) If the unusual market activity results from a rumour or report, the listed issuer must comply with paragraphs 9.09 and 9.10.
- (5) Finally, if the listed issuer is unable to determine the cause of the unusual market activity, the listed issuer must make a public announcement to the effect that there have been no undisclosed developments which would account for the unusual market activity.

PART G - UNWARRANTED PROMOTIONAL DISCLOSURE ACTIVITY

9.12 Promotional disclosure activity

- (1) A listed issuer must refrain from promotional disclosure activity in any form whatsoever or howsoever which may mislead investors or cause unwarranted price movement and activity in a listed issuer’s securities.
- (2) Such activity includes news releases, public announcements, predictions, reports or advertisements which are:-
 - (a) not justified by actual developments concerning a listed issuer;
 - (b) exaggerated;
 - (c) flamboyant;
 - (d) overstated; or
 - (e) over-zealous.

9.13 Hallmarks of promotional disclosure activity

Although the distinction between legitimate public relations activities and such promotional disclosure activity is one that must necessarily be drawn from the facts of a particular case, the following are frequent hallmarks of promotional activity:-

- (a) a series of public announcements unrelated in volume or frequency to the materiality of actual developments concerning a listed issuer;
- (b) announcement of products still in the development stage with unproven commercial prospects;
- (c) promotions and expense-paid trips, or the seeking out of meetings or interviews with analysts and financial writers, which could have the effect of unduly influencing the market activity in the listed issuer’s securities and are not justified in frequency or scope by the need to disseminate information about actual developments concerning the listed issuer;
- (d) press releases or other public announcements of a one-sided or unbalanced nature; and
- (e) listed issuer’s or product advertisements which in effect promote the listed issuer’s securities.

PART H - INSIDER TRADING

9.14 Prohibitions under the law

- (1) All listed issuers and parties who may be regarded as insiders must be fully aware of the provisions of the Securities Industry Act 1983 and the Companies Act 1965.
- (2) For the purpose of this Part, "insider" shall have the meaning given under section 89E of the Securities Industry Act 1983.

9.15 Prohibition from trading

- (1) Insiders must not trade on the basis of material information which is not known to the investing public.
- (2) Further, insiders must refrain from trading, even after material information has been released to the press and other media, for a period sufficient to permit thorough public dissemination and evaluation of the information. The period of time will be dependent both on how thoroughly and quickly after its release the information is published by the press and newswire services.
- (3) In addition, following dissemination of the information, insiders must refrain from trading until the public has had an opportunity to evaluate it thoroughly. Where the effect of the information on investment decisions is readily understandable, the required waiting period will be shorter than where the information must be interpreted before its bearing on investment decisions can be evaluated. While the waiting period is dependent on the circumstances, the Exchange recommends that, as a basic policy, insiders must wait for at least one full market day after the announcement of the material information to the Exchange. Where publication is not so widespread, a minimum waiting period of 2 full market days is recommended. Where publication does not occur, or if it should otherwise appear appropriate, it may be desirable to obtain an opinion of counsel before insiders trade.

PART I - PREPARATION OF ANNOUNCEMENTS

9.16 Content of press or other public announcement

- (1) The content of a press or other public announcement is as important as its timing. A listed issuer must ensure that each announcement:-
 - (a) is factual, clear, unambiguous, accurate, succinct and contains sufficient information to enable investors to make informed investment decisions;
 - (b) is not false, misleading and/or deceptive;
 - (c) is balanced and fair. Thus, the announcement must avoid amongst others:-
 - (i) the omission of material facts;
 - (ii) the omission of material unfavourable facts, or the slighting of such facts (e.g. by "burying" them at the end of a press release);
 - (iii) the presentation of favourable possibilities as certain, or as more probable than is actually the case;

- (iv) the representation with respect to any future performance, occurrence or matter (including the doing of, or the refusing to do, any act) without adequate justification (supported by proper bases and assumptions) or any reasonable grounds for making of such representation;
 - (v) the presentation of revenue or profit estimate, forecast or projection without sufficient qualification or sufficient factual basis, or without review by the external auditors of the accounting bases and calculations and assumptions. If any revenue or profit estimate, forecast or projection is released, it must be prepared carefully, with a reasonable factual basis and be stated realistically, with appropriate assumptions and qualifications, so as to ensure that it is properly understood, and the accounting bases and calculations of the estimate, forecast or projection and the assumptions thereto must be reviewed by the external auditors;
 - (vi) negative statements phrased so as to create a positive implication; e.g. "The company cannot now predict whether the development will have a materially favourable effect on its earnings" (creating the implication that the effect will be favourable even if not materially favourable), or "The company expects that the developments will not have a materially favourable effect on earnings in the immediate future" (creating the implication that the development will eventually have a materially favourable effect); or
 - (vii) the use of promotional jargon calculated to induce investment or create interest in the securities of the listed issuer rather than to inform;
 - (d) avoids over-technical language, and is expressed to the extent possible in language comprehensible to the layman; and
 - (e) explains, if the consequences or effects of the information on the listed issuer's future prospects cannot be assessed, why this is so.
- (2) Where an adviser is appointed by the listed issuer for submission of the announcement to the Exchange, such adviser must also comply with subparagraph (1) above.
- (3) A listed issuer or its adviser does not commit a breach of subparagraphs (1) or (2) above, as the case may be, if such person proves that:-
- (a) he had made all enquiries as were reasonable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) after making such enquiries, he had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe until the submission of the announcement that the announcement did fulfil the requirements of subparagraph (1).
- (4) Where any announcement referred to in subparagraph (1) above has been submitted to the Exchange and the person referred to in subparagraphs (1) or (2) above subsequently becomes aware that the announcement may not fulfil the requirements of subparagraph (1) above, the person shall forthwith notify the Exchange of the same.

9.17 Preparation of press or public announcement

A listed issuer must comply with the following requirements in respect of its obligation to make disclosure of information under these Requirements:-

- (a) since skill and experience are important to the preparation and editing of press or public announcements, the Exchange requires that the listed issuer identify an individual or limited group of individuals within the listed issuer who are familiar with the requirements of the Exchange, as well as any applicable requirements of the securities laws to undertake the responsibility for disclosure on a continuing basis. As a press or public announcement must usually be prepared and released as quickly as possible, the individual or group charged with this assignment must be able to handle problems that arise suddenly and unexpectedly; and
- (b) every announcement must be reviewed by a company official familiar with the matters about which disclosure is to be made.

9.18 Summary of salient points

- (1) All lengthy announcements to the Exchange should preferably be prefaced by a summary of salient points.
- (2) Where a summary is provided, the listed issuer must ensure that:-
 - (a) the summary shall be in a form suitable for immediate dissemination by the Exchange; and
 - (b) the summary is clear and is an accurate reflection of the announcement.

PART J - IMMEDIATE DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS
