Dear Sir/Madam

Submission Of Announcements

We wish to advise that, with effect from 1 August 2004, the Securities Exchange will be closed on all Saturdays.

As such, please be informed any submission of announcements by listed companies on Saturdays now will be regarded as announcements made during trading hours and a suspension may be imposed on the trading of the listed companies' securities on the market day following that Saturday so as to allow proper and thorough dissemination of the said information.

In this respect, kindly be reminded that listed companies are required to comply with the Corporate Disclosure Policy as set out in the Listing Requirements including ensuring immediate and accurate disclosure of all material information to the public.

Kindly advise the relevant person(s) in your organisation in respect of the above matter.

Yours faithfully
